Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred sixty-five, being of sound mind and knowing that we shall soon depart, do bequeath the following to those who remain:

I, George Beal, will my English book to any Junior who thinks he can handle it.
I, Shirley Gaines, will my love for basketball to my sister, Kathy; hope you enjoy it as much as I did.
I, Glenn Kiser, will my ability to get along with everyone to Jimmy Caviness.
I, Ben Webster, will all my books to my brother, Charles. Please study very hard!
I, Judy Stinson, will my title, "Miss Central," to Doreen Caudle.
I, Dale Wilkie, will my position as treasurer of the F.H.A. to Dorothy Sue Fields. My love for singing I'll take with me!
I, Becky McNeill, will my ability to daydream in class to my sister, Brenda, hoping that she can do better.
I, Pat Thomas, will my maroon '49 Dodge (goat) to my brother, Kenneth. Keep her going, Kenneth!
I, Dewey Gaines, will my love for mechanics to David Moody.
I, Frances Scott, will all my joys of being a Senior to Doris Welch.
I, India Hicks, will my position in the library to Phyllis Hicks.
I, Mary Anna Moore, will my quietness to my sister Betty. Try using it sometime.
I, Nelson Bear, will my position on the baseball team to Harold Willet.
I, Donald Morrison, leave my ability to daydream the first five periods and to sleep during the sixth to my sister, Brenda, hoping that she can wake up in time for the bell.
I, Rodema Talley, will my French book to my sister, Eldean. I know you'll do more with it than I did, Dean.
I, Naythelle Williams, will dear 'ole 87 to Patsy Williams. Keep it between the ditches, Pat!
I, Linda Teague Gilliland, will my love for Chatham Central to my younger brother Reid.
I, Larry Brewer, will my desire for having fun to my sister, Denise.
I, Cynthia Dowdy, will my love for having a good time at any cost to my sister, Donna. Just be sure not to get caught, kid!!!
I, Bobby Wilkie, will my Nash Rambler to anyone who likes front fender skirts.
I, Jackie Jones, will my ability to get along with all of the teachers to Spurgeon Moore.
I, Kenneth Scott, will my position of fullback on the football team to my little brother, Rex. Remember every inch is that much closer to pay dirt.
I, Louise Beal, will my quietness to my sisters, Loraine and Ola Mae.
I, Hope Mashburn, will my ability to be sleepy in Miss Holleman's room to Kathy Beal.
I, Steve Binkley, will my ability to play baseball to my brother, Larry; make good use of it.
I, Jeanette Wilkie, will my seat in Sociology to my sister, Mary Lois.
I, Brenda Moody, will to my seven younger brothers the desire to have a class under Mr. Kitchings because, boys, I never had the opportunity.
I, Eddie Gaines, will my love of life to Darrell Hilliard. Enjoy it while you can and keep them laughing.
I, Doris Wicker, will my love for typing to Patricia Moody. Watch those errors!
I, Sue Smith, will my position in the library to Vicky Elkins.
I, Wayne Markham, will my bus, No. 6, also my ability to get along with the teachers to my brother, Doyle.
I, Andy Wilkie, will my doctor and dental appointments to my little brother, Willie. They are useful on test days.
I, Scarlet Dark, will to Karen Brooks my position on the basketball team, and to Dianne Gaines, Secretary of the Beta Club.
I, Brenda King, will my place on the Centralia Staff as typist to my brother, Terry.
I, J. Carr Beaver, will my pleasure of being a captain on the football team to Eddie Brafford.
I, Earl Nall, will to my sister, Sandy, my misfortune of being hooked before I even get out of high school.
I, Mary Edith Smith, will to my brother, Tommy, all my notes and my Chatham Central notebooks.
I, Wayne Gaines, will my ability to get by with little studying and still get good grades to Jack Caudle.
I, Leslie Brooks, will my position as Business Manager of the Centralia to Bill Goldston. Keep those advertisements straight.
I, Hazel Brewer, will my love for writing on bridges to Gwen Talley. My love for driving other people's cars, I'll take with me.
I, Betty Lou Phillips, will my good fortune to be in shorthand to Becky Teague in great hope that she will accomplish more than I did!
I, Wayne Vaughn, will my ability not to do my homework to anyone who can get by with it.
I, Sherry Potter, will my love to run in just about every contest at Chatham Central to Sandy, Belvedere, and Yvonne. Remember—if you don't win, try, try again.
I, Dorothy Phillips, will my typewriter to my sister, Linda. Be sure to proofread carefully.
I, Doris Phillips, will my seat in typing to my nephew, Bill W. Smith. Watch those errors, Bill!
I, Jane Beaver, will my position as Editor of Bear Facts to Karen Brooks, and my position as Treasurer of Beta Club to Susan Emerson.
I, Becky Powers, will my position on Library Staff to Doris Welch.
I, Robert Brewer Jr., will my ways with the girls to anyone who can handle them.
I, Gerald Binkley, will my position on the football team to my brother, Billy, Hope you do a better job than I did, "Muss".
I, Nancy Phillips, will my French book to my sister, Judy. Watch those verb endings!
I, Elaine Clark, will my friendly smile to Brenda Evans. Keep smiling Brenda!
I, Robert Fields, will my perfect attendance record throughout the years to anyone who wants to try to get it.
I, Katie Wicker, will my position on the Centralia Staff to my niece, Donna. My Experiences with Amy I'll take with me.
I, Annette Phillips, will my position on the cheerleading squad to my sister, Martha Ann. Better start practicing, "Rootsie."
I, Robert Oldham, will my seat in Typing II to any Junior who wants it. Watch those errors!
I, Judy Collins, will my nerve to sing at talent shows to my sister, Nancy. Don't forget the words, Nan.
I, Joe Elmore, will my dimples to Clarence Fields. Watch those girls!
I, Frank Crutchfield, will my position as manager of all sports to my nephew, Johnny Callicutt. Work hard, John.
I, Joyce Ellis, will my place in the Beta Club to my sister, Verna. The knowledge, you'll have to find somewhere else.
I, Billy Beavers, will my position as F.F.A. president to anyone who is willing to work hard enough to reach the goal.
I, Kaye Bray, will to my brother Craig four years of high school without his big sister. I leave my front seat in French to Shirley Brown.

Now, having made our wishes known, we, the Senior Class of 1965 of Chatham Central High School, declare this to be our last will and testament.

Something is burning!

Now that I'm up here, how do I get down?

Oh, no, look what happened!

All in favor, say aye.
